

RECARO POLE POSITION

Sport styling and comfort

The RECARO Pole Position racing shell offers the safety and comfort features a driver needs. This shell is perfect for the amateur racer. The Pole Position shell is FIA approved as are all racing shells sold by RECARO in North America. The fiberglass shell is both light and strong. The thigh bolstering is substantial, but still allows for ease of entry and exit from the seat. The thigh bolsters, coupled with the shoulder bolsters offers excellent hold for the track. The unique RECARO ergonomically designed shell with its curved S shaped backrest ensures the Pole Position delivers the best in safety and comfort.
